Performance Notes:

Divisi

Flutes 2-4 and Alto Flute have divisi (other parts do not have divisi). It is worth noting that Flute 4 and Alto Flute double each other throughout, so only two players would be needed to cover the 'Flute 4/Alto Flute' part.

Program Notes

Prior to the publication of Slavonic Dances, Antonín Dvorák (1841-1904) was a relatively unknown composer who had little success in getting works published or performed. In 1877, Dvorák won the Austrian State Prize fellowship with his Moravian Duets. One of the judges that year happened to be Johannes Brahms, who was so impressed with Dvorák's duets that he recommended them to his publisher, Simrock. The following year, Simrock commissioned Dvorák to compose a series of Slavonic dances for piano duet with the intent of repeating the popularity of Brahms' Hungarian Dances. Dvorák's Slavonic Dances, Op 46 was an immediate success, almost instantly elevating the composer to a celebrity status.

Unlike Brahms' Hungarian Dances, Dvorák's Slavonic Dances utilize traditional rhythmic patterns and structures instead of quoting folk melodies. 'No. 8' is based on the furiant; a rapid and lively Bohemian dance in alternating duple and triple meters. This is clearly seen and heard in the first 4 measures; measures 1 and 2 can be thought of as three measures of 2/4 while measures 3 and 4 are heard in 3/4 (see below). This alternating pattern can be heard throughout the piece.

A musical score for two pianos in 3/4 time. The key signature is one flat. Measures 1 and 2 are in 2/4 time, indicated by a '2' above the measure. Measures 3 and 4 are in 3/4 time, indicated by a '3' above the measure. Measures 5 and 6 are in 2/4 time, indicated by a '2' above the measure. Measures 7 and 8 are in 3/4 time, indicated by a '3' above the measure. The dynamic 'ff' (fortissimo) is marked in the first measure. The score consists of two staves, one for each piano.
